

A G E N D A

Livability and Longevity: Changing Needs for an Aging Metropolis

---

12-1:30 PM

Luncheon

12:30 PM

Introduction

- Karen Fingerman, UT Professor and Director, TALC
- Dr. Shannon Jarrott Intergenerational Community Building Strategies

2:00 PM

Introduction

- Jacqueline Angel, UT Wilbur J. Cohen Professor of Health and Social Policy
- JR DeShazo, LBJ School Dean, LBJ School of Public Affairs
- Alison Alter, Austin City Council

2:15 PM

LBJ Graduate Student Briefing- *Aging Austin: A New Era

- Taylor Cook
- Meredith Anderson
- Krista Weatherford
- Rachel Evans

3:00 PM

Panel Discussion- *Planning and Policy for the Future

- Presider, Suzanne Anderson, CEO AGE
- Panelists, Stephanie Hayden-Howard, Assistant City Manager
- Henry Van de Putte, CEO, Meals on Wheels Central Texas
- Amy Temperley, Chair, City of Austin, Commission on Aging
- Cynthia Valadez, Board Member Central
- Moderators, Josh Witkop and Joyleen Sanchez, LBJ School
- Discussant, Bart Farar, Family Eldercare

A G E N D A

Livability and Longevity: Changing Needs for an Aging Metropolis

---

4:00 PM            Age-Friendly Austin Audience Poll

- Pollster, Lexi Compean, LBJ School

4:30 PM            Wrap up and Special Recognitions

*Breaks as needed

Advisory Group

Aaron Alarcon, Family Eldercare
Pat Calhoun, AustinUP
Bart Farar, Family Eldercare
Taylor Cook, UT Austin, Graduate
Student: Aging, Health and Social Welfare
Robert Faubion, AGE of Central Texas
Karen Fingerman, Texas Aging and Longevity Center, UT Austin

Nicole Howe, Austin Public Health
Jessica Lemann, AARP
Amy Temperley, City of Austin
Commission on Aging
Henry Van de Putte, Meals on Wheels CTX
Chair, Professor Angel, LBJ School of Public Affairs and Commission on Aging

Sponsor

St. David's Foundation

Acknowledgement

Thank you study participants for taking the time for our community engagement and interviews. Special thanks to our partners Family Eldercare, Meals on Wheels of Central Texas, and City of Austin Housing and Planning Department for assistance with data collection.

We are grateful for the LBJ School and Staff for their support

Hosted by

