

PA385D/TD387D/INF385T: Nonprofit Management and Strategy

This course examines key issues, challenges, and opportunities in the creation, management, and leadership of nonprofit organizations. Among the topics to be considered are nonprofit creation, mission management, organizational leadership, funding strategies, collaboration, and the impact of the public policy environment. We will use exercises and case studies to apply broad themes to practical issues. Guest speakers will periodically share their experiences running nonprofits. Relevant to students planning to work in, with, or through nonprofit organizations in a variety of fields (e.g., arts and culture, human services etc.).